

—We invite the attention of our Mechato the advertisement of the Rev. Mr. O'- LAGHAN, requesting written Proposals for pleting the large additions about to be made the Catholic Church edifice at Pearl St.

no longer "the great unanswered." It will be by our Congressional proceedings, that Mr. Fox has done him the honor of poking his long finger into his head. We hope he is content. Let readers notice the noble, indignant and patriotic of the great Kentuckian to Foote's narrow sectional appeal to him as a Southern man. I think the Mississippi magnate for drawing that line from HENRY CLAY, "the Southern man

The subject of the tariff, in which the people of the North and the New England, are so much interested, has not excited any great degree of attention in either House of Congress. It is understood that Southern members are neither in favor of, nor opposed to its being touched. More than half of the Committee on Manufacture, from whom resolutions would naturally come for a revivification, have done anything.

Mr. Peck, the able and efficient chairman, of the Committee, on Manufactures in the House, has several times, yet called the Committee together, and on the other day that he did not know when he would, that there was no disposition in the Committee to make any suggestions in regard to an alteration of the tariff.

think the substance of this petition is such to be appropriate, it should have had a preface in these words:

Gentlemen members of Congress, whereas, at the commencement of this session you and I took your solemn oaths in the presence of God, and on the Holy Evangelists, that you would support the constitution of the United States; now, therefore, we pray you take immediate steps to break up the Union, and to overthrow the constitution of the United States in as you can. And, as in duty bound,

LUCKY AND THE UNION.—In the Kentucky Legislature, on the 25th inst., the following resolution was unanimously adopted: That the Governor is hereby resolved, to cause a suitable block of native to be conveyed to Washington City, to be placed in the monument to the memory of the Father of his Country, and that the following words be engraved thereon: "In the bosom of Heaven and the presence of Washington, Kentucky will be the first to give up the Union." Her loyalty to the Union and to the true principles of Republicanism, is as firm as that of her noblest son.

CLAY: When the roll of States shall have received a letter from an esteemed friend at Bellows Falls, where Mr. Dodge has living several of his popular Concerts, expressing very expectations that may be forming a whirlwind of the musical performances gentleman. Mr. Dodge is to be with Thursday Evening of next week, we understand, and from the fame that precedes him, we think he may be allowed to anticipate a rich We think he may count on an audience that correspond to the commendations that reached us concerning him.

On the outside of the last Courier is a essay on "Canine reasoning," while the power to the enemies of Southern states, and to drive the South into a hopeless, in all time to come.

The gentleman concluded, the committee and the House adjourned.

Wednesday, Feb. 13.

MR. — Mr. Dickinson's revenue resolution taken up and amended, authorizing of bonded warehouses, and then passed. Reported a bill for the appointment of a commissioner to settle the claims under the treaty.

Resolved moved that the commissioner be $500, and clerk $200, and to limit the time to one year. Carried, and the bill passed.

Mr. — Mr. Dickinson's resolutions, taken up.